We come to this place—we make it our own.

The place is a beautiful one — it is “home” — it is “our World” — it is where we grow, where we learn — and years from now, the place to which we can never really return.

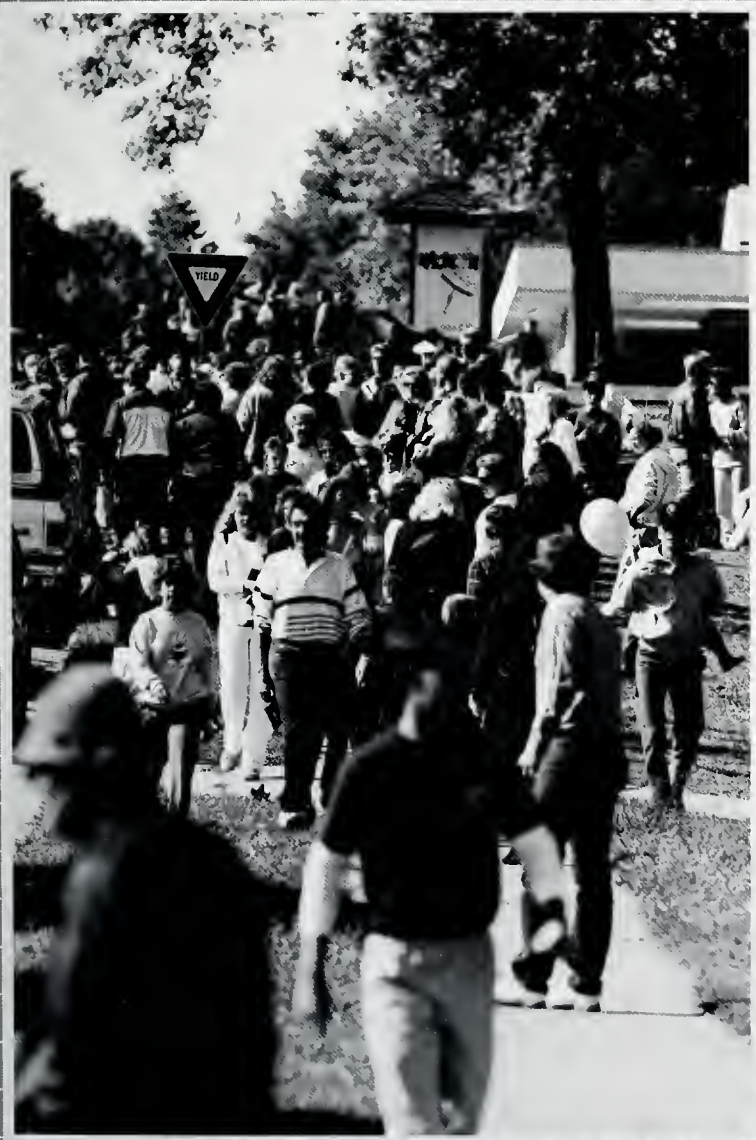

It becomes a part of us, and perhaps we become a part of it. Alma Mater will always mean Lenoir-Rhyne.

We are unique as individuals and as groups — yet we blend together — we become the Bears.

Our differences are as many as we are people—the drama of life is played out here—in our place.

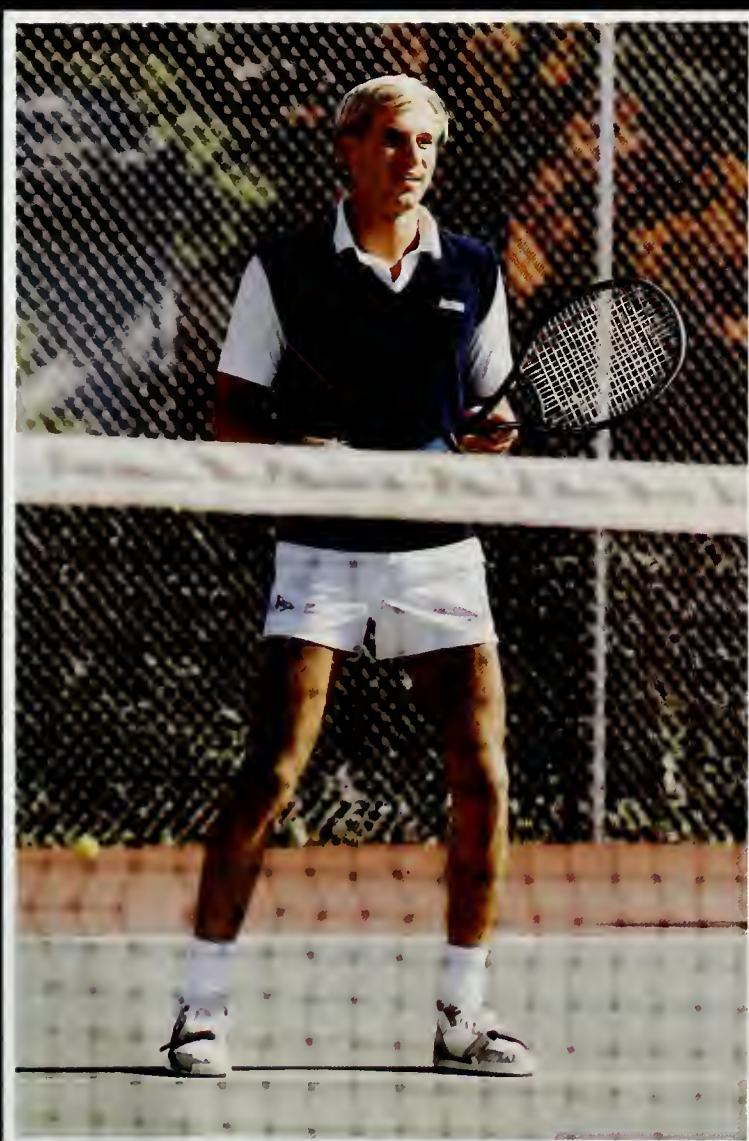

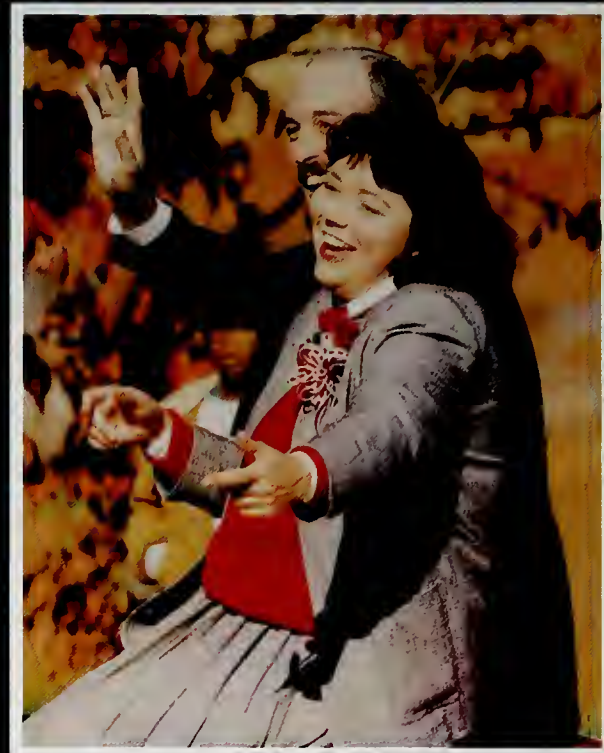

This is our time — this is our year — as we become a part of the drama of LR.

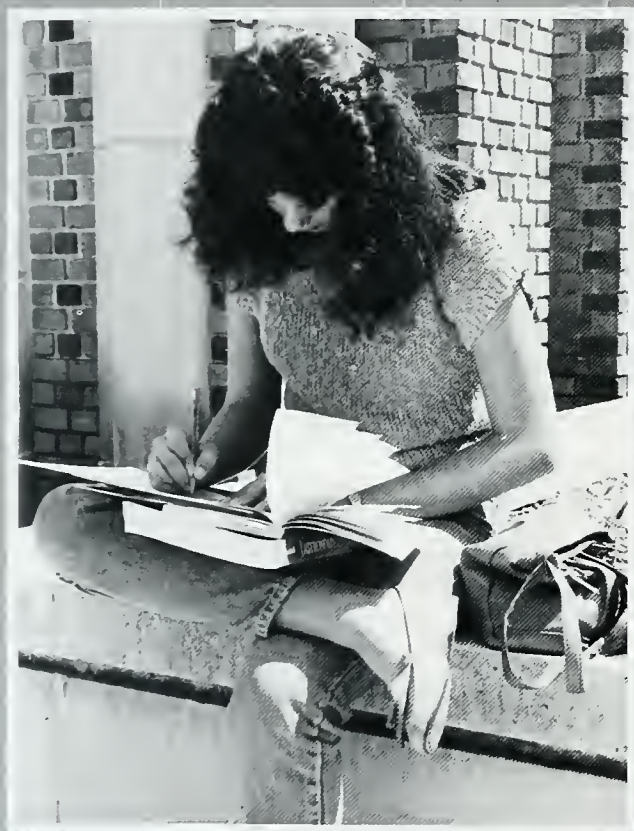

Our time is composed of the serious and the frivolous—yet we keep striving—four years of sometime stumbling, but always moving on.

There are special moments — “special” things we do.

These special moments form the “glue” that holds us together as a community and give definition to our existence in this place.

Here we hear of God and of humanity — of liberal arts, “getting a job,” finding a major, taking notes,
passing a test—

—and of learning to live with a roommate, socializing, joining a club, “getting involved,” sometimes falling in love, being homesick, maturing.

And as we mature the seasons change—all about us the world takes on differing colors.

DANIEL EFIR
MEMORIAL

DING

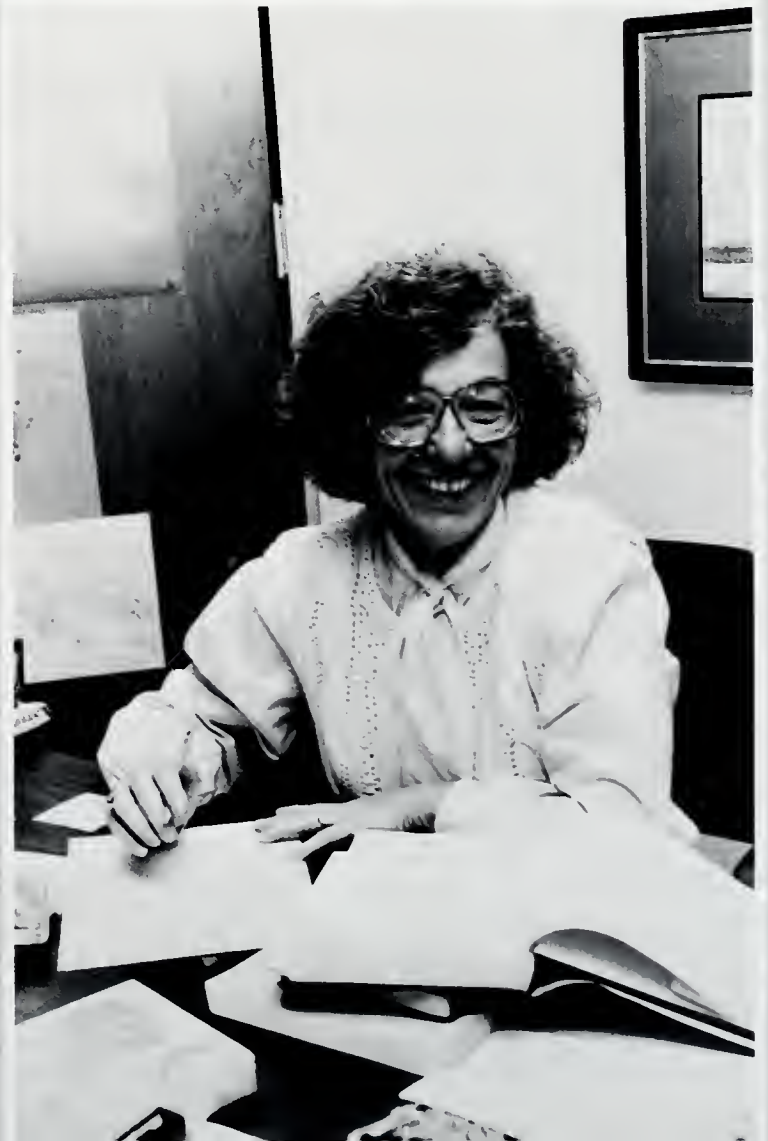

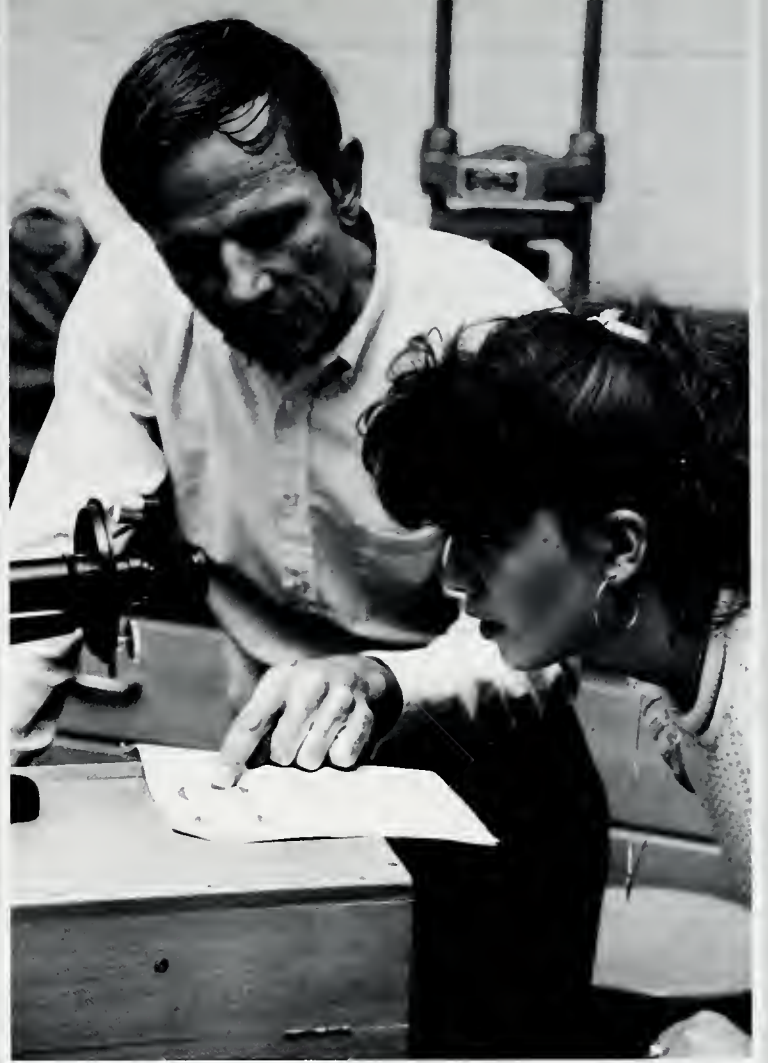

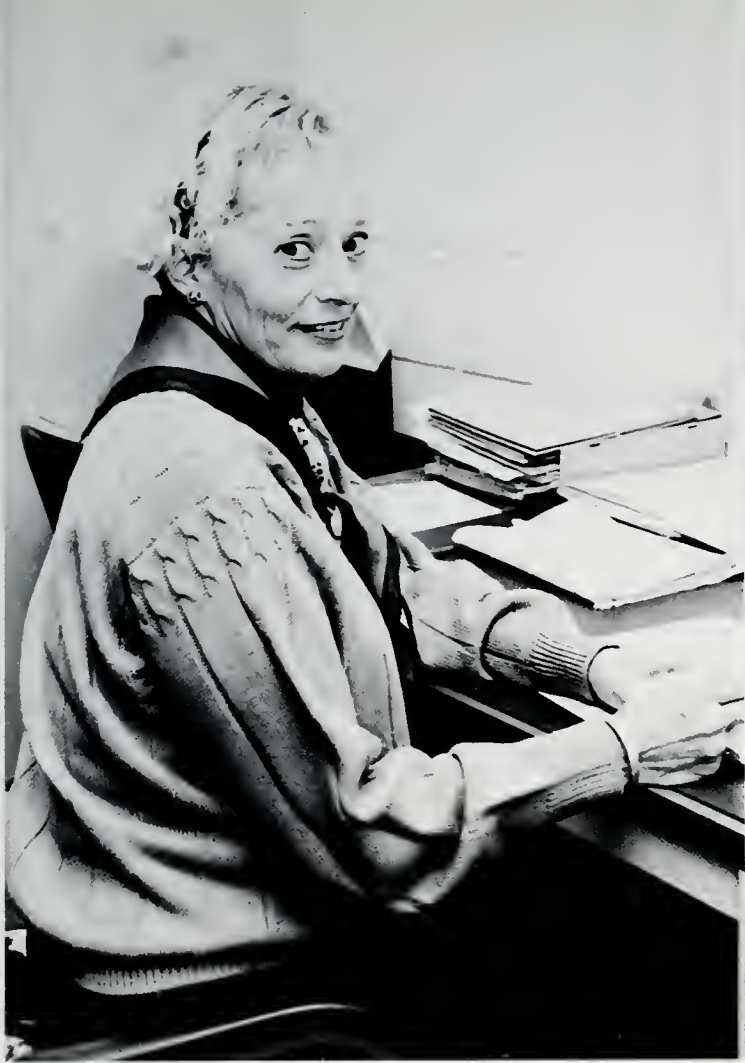

And we ourselves begin to be different. Like the seasons we change. Freshmen become sophomores, then juniors, and finally seniors—we find a major, and if we are lucky we find a purpose in this perplexing world. We will soon have a degree.

We have had good teachers. Men and women who have dared us to be more than ordinary—who have captured us with their knowledge, their wit, and their compassion. We have seasoned in our classrooms and our labs. But the farewell of graduation approaches.

Our special moments are becoming all too quickly memories. And the people all about us, who began as faces in the crowd, have now become friends.

The drama is complete—we have had our joy and our sorrow—there has been a season for all things—this has been our season, our time, our purpose—

Now we must leave. We do not say goodbye — only “until I see you again.”

"POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE" ENDS YEAR

Lenoir-Rhyne College closed its 97th academic year to the strains of Edward Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance." Approximately 240 students received degrees in the May 8 ceremonies.

Spring exercises began with the Baccalaureate service at 10:30 a.m. in Monroe Auditorium. The college choir rendered several anthems and the principal address was delivered by the Reverend William Milholland, Jr., pastor of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church.

Commencement exercises were held at 3:00 p.m. in Shuford Gymnasium. The Honorable Otis Bowen, U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services, spoke. His subject was bioethics and he charged the class to search for solutions with reason and to avoid violence.

The college honored five individuals at the afternoon gathering. Dr. Bowen received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree, while honorary Doctor of Divinity degrees went to Reverend Webster Lytle and Reverend Milholland.

Dr. Charles McCreight was awarded an honorary Doctor of Science degree, while Dr. Frances Farthing was recognized with a trustee award.

First Honor graduate in the senior class was Leslie Ruppard of Statesville, N.C., and Second Honor graduate was Elaine Cote of Taylorsville, N.C.

MOM AND DAD VISIT ON PARENTS' DAY

While parents of LR students are always welcomed at the college, there is a special weekend set aside for visiting, known as Parents' Weekend. This year it was held September 30-October 2.

Events for Mom and Dad included the production of "EYE-FELL GLOFFENHIITEN ANNIEMERRY BERRY-CRUNCH" by LR Playmakers on the college Quadrangle and a "Meet the Faculty" segment in the Rhyne building with faculty members grouped by departments throughout the classroom building.

October 1 included an Open House in the dormitories, a soccer game (LR vs. Elon), a volleyball game (LR vs. Atlantic Christian), and an evening football game (LR vs. Elon).

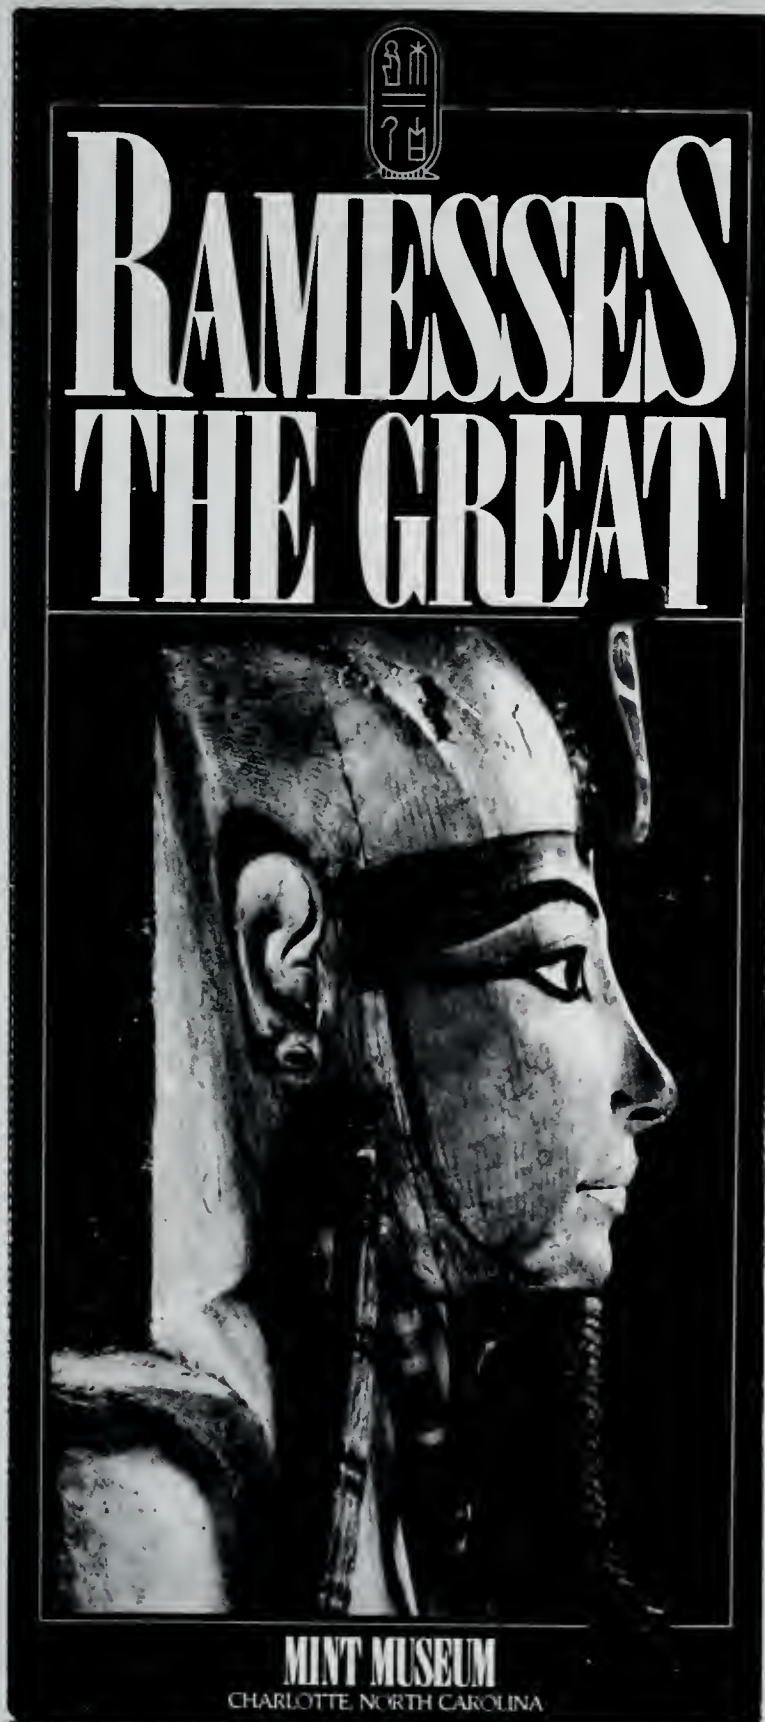

Patti Whitener was the coordinator for the weekend. It was once again a successful event and underscored the value of parents visiting the college often, not only to "touch base" with their children, but to acquaint themselves with the facilities and the programs of Lenoir-Rhyne.

EGYPTIAN KING COMES TO CAROLINA

The Mint Museum of Charlotte, North Carolina, was host to an Egyptian monarch who was over 3200 years old!

He was called Ramesses the Great.

And he had one burning ambition: to have his name survive the centuries, to live forever.

Long recognized as Egypt's greatest Pharaoh and builder, Ramesses' accomplishments in architecture are astounding. Employing skilled architects and a work force of thousands, he single-handedly directed the construction of many of Egypt's most famous and impressive structures.

Well-known as Egypt's last great warrior-king, Ramesses was quite possibly the pharaoh of the Exodus. The adopted brother of Moses, Ramesses reigned during the plagues, the first Passover and the eventual release of the Hebrews.

The exhibition of treasures of Ramesses' reign was a cultural coup for Charlotte and its Mint Museum.

Many Lenoir-Rhyne students and faculty visited the exhibit and were in awe of its treasures.

LR and all of Carolina benefited from this visit of an Egyptian king who carried his homeland to glory so many thousands of years ago.

LR CAMPUS EXTENDS TO "MERRY ENGLAND"

For most of its existence, Lenoir-Rhyne College has been located in Hickory, North Carolina.

And while it has not closed its Hickory campus, LR has extended beyond the Catawba Valley to "merry old England."

LR is now a part of Harlaxton College.

Harlaxton is really two things: a 100-room Victorian manor house in the English midlands and a self-contained extension campus of the University of Evansville in southern Indiana.

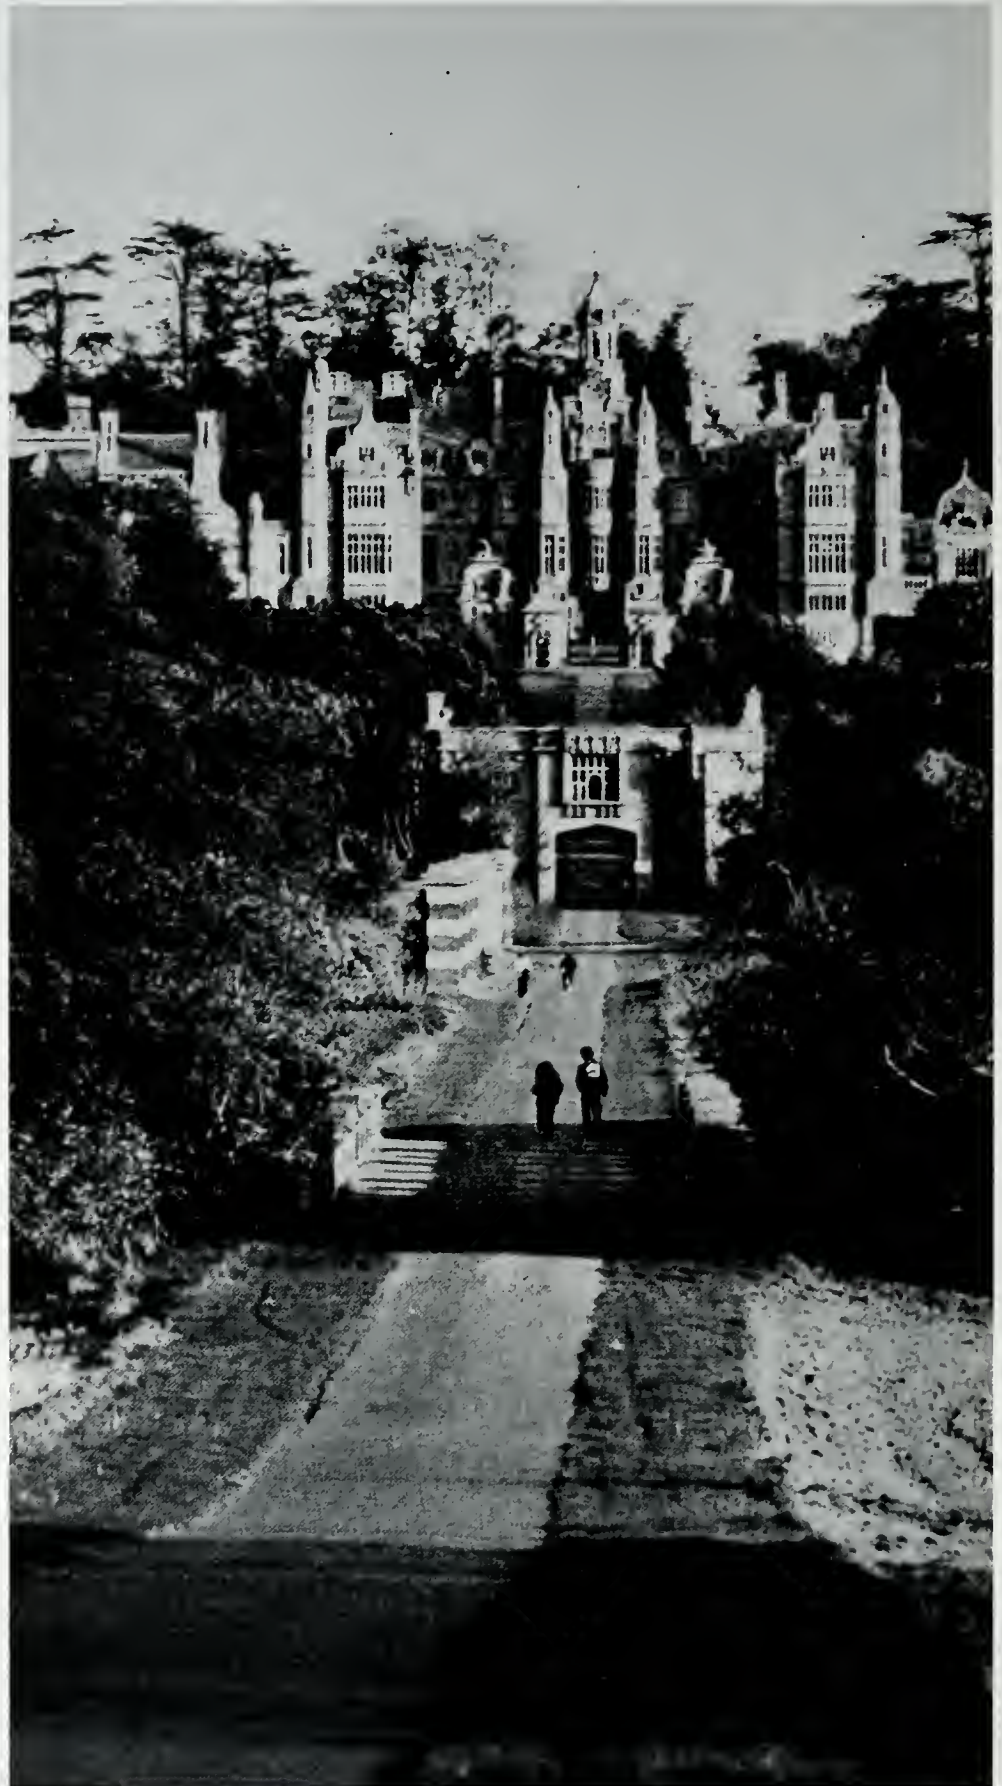

Approximately 200 college students, freshmen through seniors, attend Harlaxton each semester. Usually about 150 are from American colleges and universities and Lenoir-Rhyne has joined the list of U.S. educational institutions taking part in the "Harlaxton experience."

With Business professor Tom Thies as coordinator, LR students took part in Harlaxton for the first time in the Fall semester, 1988.

In addition to classes (many taught the British tutorial), there is also travel mixed with studies. Each semester optional field trips are scheduled for European cities such as Paris, Rome, Florence, and Munich. Students also travel on their own throughout the British Isles.

Harlaxton is situated three miles from the Midlands market town of Grantham and 100 miles north of London.

Harlaxton does not put you in "flats" to fend for yourself. You are among other American students with the services of a dean of students and other professionals accustomed to helping students adjust to a new culture. At the same time, you are not isolated from the English. The faculty, staff, customs, and food are British.

IRISH POET GIVES READING AT COLLEGE

At a college where a variety of convocations and forums abound, it was still a cultural milestone for Lenoir-Rhyne to host a reading by the Irish poet Paul Muldoon.

On November 14, few would have predicted the Belk Centrum would be filled to capacity for a poetry recitation.

Dr. Rand Brandes, English professor and coordinator of the poet's visit, remarked, "The event symbolically marks LR's move toward a more vital liberal arts institution through cultural involvement."

Muldoon explained settings and themes of his poetry. The soft-spoken Irishman illicit laughter from his audience as he explained words and images he used in his writing, such as "quoof" for hot water bottle.

Brandes noted that Muldoon "is a rising star in the poetry world" and clearly Muldoon's appearance marks the beginning of other literary figures at the LR campus.

A reception was held afterward at the Home of President and Mrs. John Trainer, Jr.

"It is by such an appreciation that the student becomes truly a well educated one: for he can converse on a wide variety of topics. Not only that, he comes to a greater knowledge of what it means to be human and make some sense out of reality."

William McDonald
LR Senior

"The standing room-only crowd demonstrated an interest in and need for more literary events in particular, and cultural events in general, at Lenoir-Rhyne."

COLLEGE'S ELECTION-CENTRAL MONITORS VOTING;

There was an air of excitement the night of November 8 as the lobby of the Cromer Center became Lenoir-Rhyne's Election-Central.

Democrats mingled with Republicans and Independents as all prepared for returns in a host of national, state, and local races.

Sponsored by the Political Science Club and under the direction of Dr. Lowell Ashman, the event has become a highlight of each political year.

Television sets were placed in the lobby, speeches were made, refreshments were served, and goodnatured kidding took place regarding the recently-completed campaign.

As the evening election returns began coming in, the size of George Bush's victory became apparent. The Republican ticket of Bush-Quayle had carried every Southern state as well as California, Ohio, and Pennsylvania among others for a total of 426 electoral votes. It was a smashing win!

The Democratic presidential candidate Massachusetts Governor Michael Dukakis carried ten states for a total of 112 electoral votes.

The Republican party would also take heart in the re-election of Governor Jim Martin of North Carolina and of Cass Ballinger of Hickory, to the National House.

The G.O.P. would lose two spots in the Senate, giving the Democrats a majority of 56, and a handful of seats in the House, giving the Democrats a majority of 262.

On January 20, Vice President Bush was sworn in as the 41st president of the United States, the first vice president to achieve the presidency while serving as vp since 1837.

THE PRESIDENT

Dr. John Ezra Trainer, Jr. became the ninth president of Lenoir-Rhyne College in August, 1984.

President Trainer received his B.S. degree from Muhlenburg College, his M.A. degree from Wake Forest University, and his Ph.D. degree from the University of Oklahoma. Dr. Trainer also recently received an honorary degree from his Alma Mater, Muhlenburg College.

President Trainer and his wife Alice are the parents of a son and two daughters.

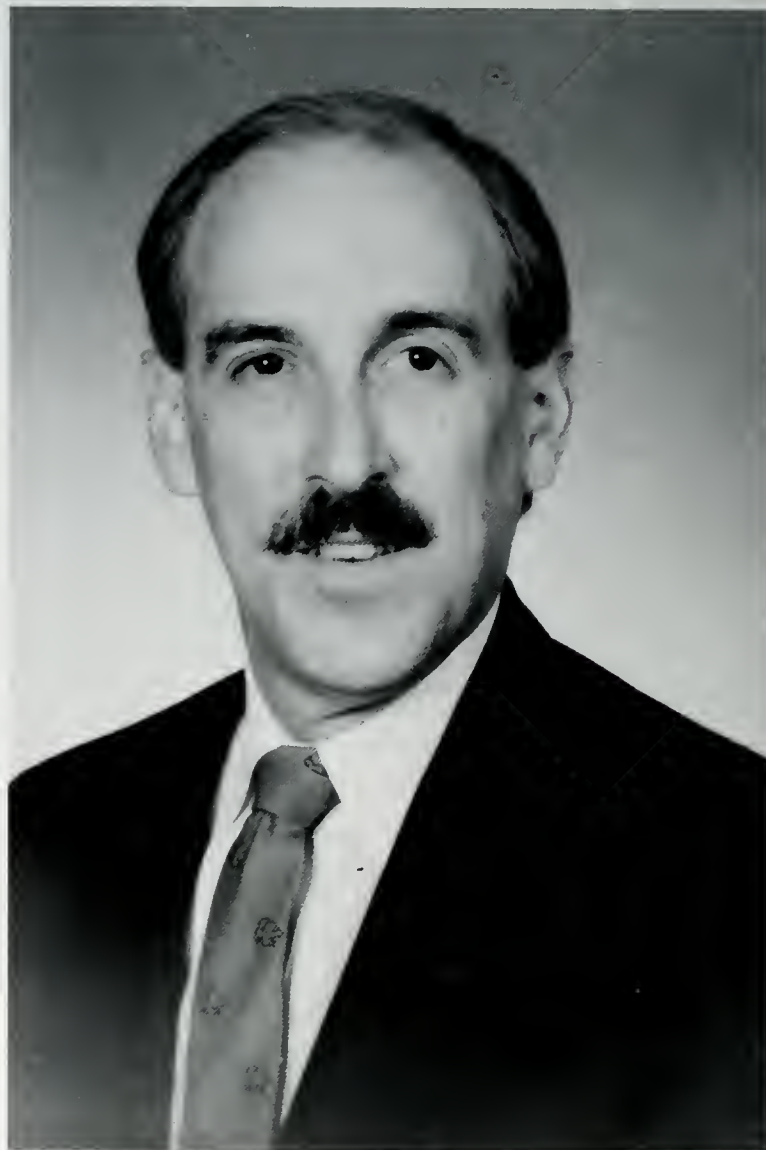

President Trainer is a vigorous and dynamic young educator and under his leadership the college prepares to move into the 21st century.

At Dr. Trainer's request, the Board of Trustees approved the largest capital gifts campaign in the history of the college and the history of the Catawba Valley.

Also a comprehensive long-range planning process was implemented, producing plans for the college as it moves toward its centennial in 1991 and on into the next century.

A tentative goal of $24 million for the Centennial Campaign has been set to improve and expand such areas as instructional programs, faculty development, student life and the physical plant.

On the eve of the 100th birthday of Lenoir-Rhyne College, one of the institution's great assets is the leadership of its outstanding president.

"THE LEARNING EXPERIENCE"

"The Learning Experience" at Lenoir-Rhyne occurs in classrooms, in the library, in computer rooms, in science labs, in language labs—and, of course, in that vast area beyond all of these, where the education of life continuously takes place.

SUMMER THEATRE FEATURES CAMPUS, COMMUNITY CASTS

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Summer Theatre combined the talents of campus and community to present two outstanding productions during the summer of 1988.

Under the direction of Dr. Ellis Boatmon, theatre general manager, the summer troupe presented THE DESPERATE HOURS, a three-act drama by Joseph Hayes in mid-June, and ARSENIC AND OLD LACE, a classic three-act comedy by Joseph Kesselrigg, in early August.

Set design for the summer was by Dave Briggs with Scott Sherill serving as technical director. Assistant tech personnel included Robert Moon and Donald Safrit.

Both shows were presented in the Belk Centrum and were made possible by assistance from the Lineberger Center for Cultural and Educational Renewal.

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE, the second production, marked the first of the summer "Centennial Plays." Each summer through 1991, the theatre group will present one play from the rich theatre history of LR. The 1988 version was dedicated to the cast and crew of the 1965 production and its director, Mr. Sam Baker.

PLAY WITH "IMPOSSIBLE NAME" A DELIGHT

The first Playmaker production of the '88-'89 season was "the play with the impossible name" — EYEFELLGLOFFENHOOTENANNIE — MERRYBERRYCRUNCH.

A fairy tale for children of all ages, it was well-received by large audiences when performed on the Quad.

Directed by Ray Mills of the Theatre Arts department, Laura Wolf was stage manager and Dave Briggs was technical director.

The show's delightful costumes were designed by C. Jane Johnson, costume construction by the Drama 205 class, and John Stafford was box office manager.

The cast included: Michelle Atkinson (Baker), Nicole Beaver (King), Tim Brown (Carrot), Karla Droege (Rabbit), Chip Haas (Mayor), and Nena Moorman (Witch).

Also, Rob Ogle (Tree Grouch), Robyn Read (Teena), John Ritz (Fox), Michele Roeder (Narrator), Janice Suddreth (Mayor's wife), and Ashley Wise (Baker's assistant).

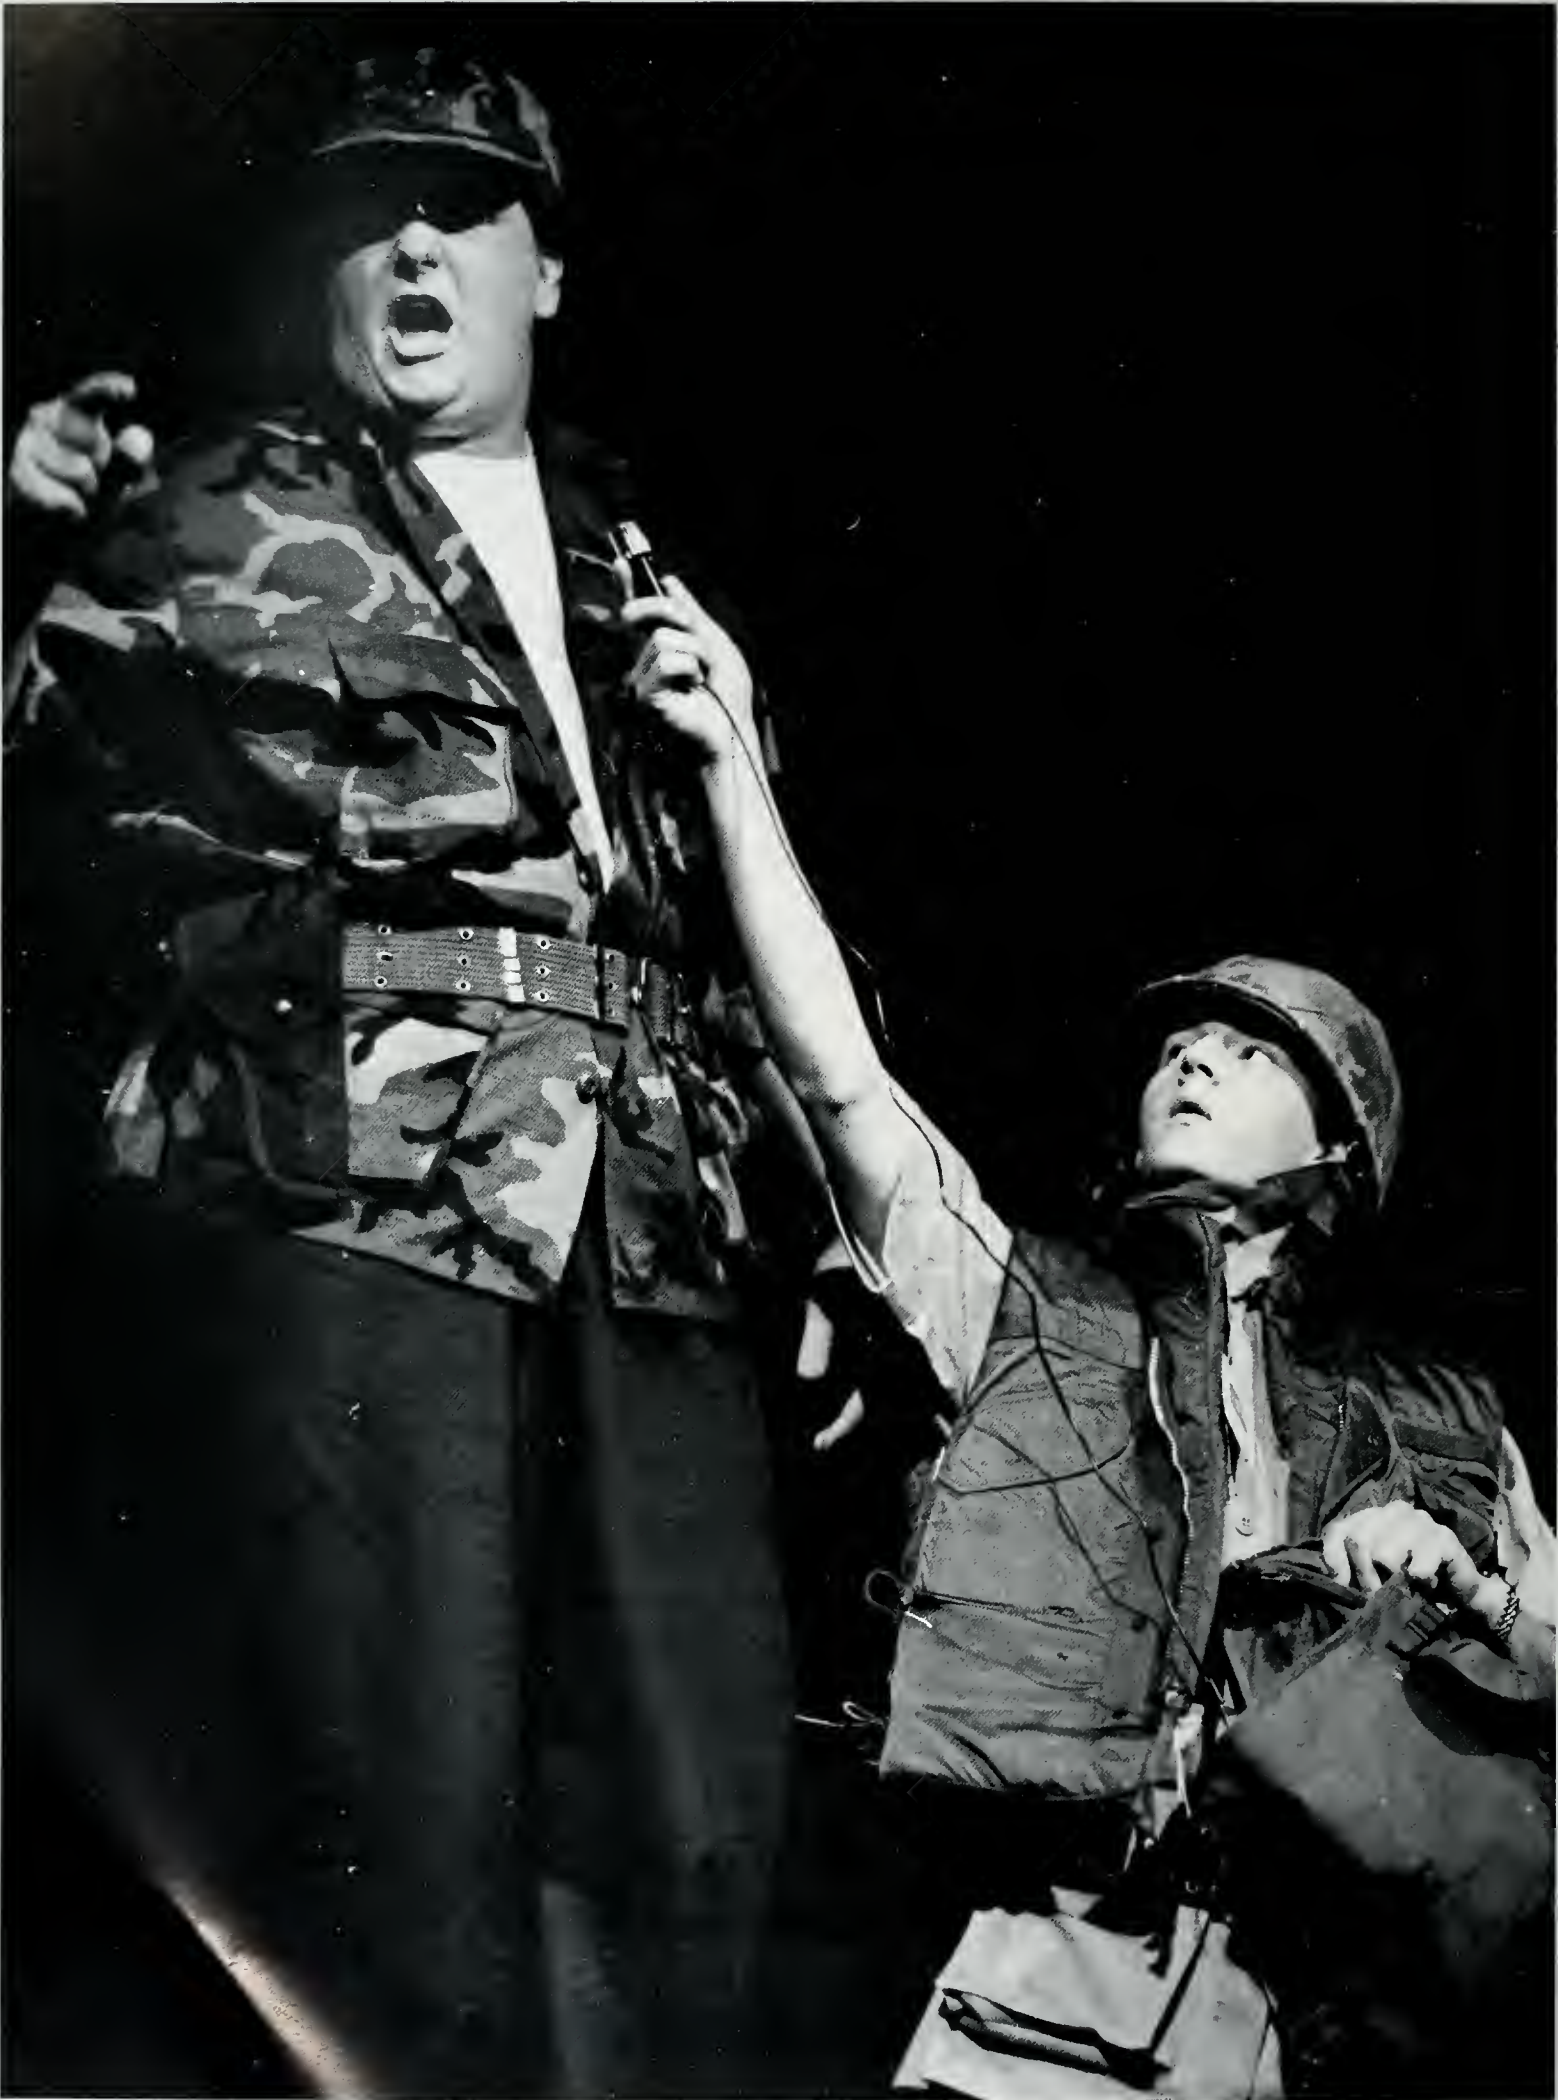

"In Eyefellgloffenhootenanniemerryberrycrunch, the folks are never hungry cause they're always out to lunch. Yes, they're always home a eatin' which is really quite a shame, that is how their sign was stolen and their village lost its name!"

'HOW I GOT THAT STORY' – BLACK COMEDY

For its second production, the Lenoir-Rhyne College Playmakers presented a black comedy entitled "How I Got That Story."

Director Dr. Marion Love noted, "Comedy in theatre is any humorous play that has a happy ending. Black comedy, on the other hand, is a humorous play that has a tragic ending usually involving a death."

Initially produced by the Milwaukee Repertory Theatre, and then presented off-off-Broadway, this stunningly original black comedy sums up the incongruity and tragedy of our experience in Vietnam.

The setting is "Ambo Land" (Vietnam) where a naive young Reporter from Dubuque encounters the Historical Event — actors who portray some 21 characters. Anxious to cover the war in all its aspects, the Reporter plunges into the surreal madhouse that it has become, interviewing foul-mouthed G.I.'s; a teen-age prostitute; the sinister lady ruler of the country; a Buddhist monk about to immolate himself; and many others.

Dr. Love directed the production with Tim Brown as assistant director, Chip Haas as stage manager, and Ray Mills as Scenic Designer.

David Briggs was Technical Director, Set Construction by Members of Drama 200 and 201, and John Stafford was Box Office Manager.

Ray Mills handled lighting design, Amy Leigh Bryant was lighting operator, and C. Jane Johnson designed costumes.

The cast included Jaime Marschalk as the Reporter with Karla Droege, Andy Getz, James Kashork and Laura Wolf as Historical Events.

The Kabuki was composed of Virginia Link, Micki Overcast, Hayden Satterfield and Ashley Wise.

Ray Houston headed Program and Nicole Beaver did Sound.

"WAIT UNTIL DARK"—SUSPENSE THRILLER

For its third production of the 1988-89 year, the Playmakers chose Frederick Knott's suspense thriller, WAIT UNTIL DARK.

The lead role of the blind Susy Henrix was played by LR sophomore Laura Wolf. Her husband Sam was played by Chip Haas.

Others in the cast were Jack DeRochi (Mike Talman), James Kashork (Sgt. Carlino), Darrell Moore (Harry Roat, Jr.), Anna Wood (Gloria), and Scott O'Dell and Michelle Atkinson (Police Officers).

The chiller was directed by Ray Mills with Virginia Link serving as stage manager. Mills was the scenic designer and David Briggs was the technical director.

Karla Droege served as lighting operator, Scott Sherrill was the sound operator and C. Jane Johnson was the costume designer.

Alyssia Johnson and Barb Smits were box office managers, Virginia Link and Beth Fleming were costume assistants, while set construction was done by members of Drama 200 and 201 classes.

Choir ADDS "Extra Touch" To LR Life

JOE BEAR

For many years Joe Bear was a real bear. But in more recent years the college mascot has been a student in a bear costume. During the school year several students will take turns at being Joe Bear. They have added much to the spirit of athletic events.

In the Fall, 1988, Anne Grady and Mike Shackelford served as Joe Bear (right).

ATHLETIC TRAINERS

At the heart of the college's athletic program is the athletic training staff. They not only deal with immediate injuries, but concern themselves with prevention of injuries and long-range rehabilitation.

The training staff is headed by John Thomas. He is seen at left with student assistant Darryl Miller as they work on Greg Dark's leg.

SOCCER BEARS EYE MAJOR ADVANCEMENT

Soccer at Lenoir-Rhyne is coming of age. After years of struggling, soccer is moving from "intramural status" to intercollegiate competition.

It has not been easy. Coaches and players have come and gone, but soccer was never able to crack the inner circle of football and basketball.

Despite its reputation as an international sport, played by far larger numbers than football or basketball, soccer had not "caught on" in the Catawba Valley.

Coach Thomas Melville, a native of Northern Ireland, has begun to change some of this. Melville has brought to LR soccer not only his personal expertise, but an attitude of winning in a highly competitive sport.

Melville was himself an outstanding player. He knows soccer. And this slowly has begun to pay off on LR's soccer field. He is building his team with good sound instruction and careful use of recruiting.

The 1988 squad was a part of the building process. A process that will pay greater dividends in the seasons to come.

This year's squad included a freshman core around which to build—men like Jim Grover, Buster Franklin, David Johnson, Gene Faller, Chris Nolan, and Sean Hawkins, as well as returning upperclassmen.

This year's team committed the errors of youth and "the building process," but in every match there were signs the building is going on. LR has become a competitor in soccer. LR is being respected by the schools we play.

And perhaps the end result of the recruiting and the building will be soccer's entrance into that "sacred circle," with the circle becoming a triad of football, basketball, and soccer.

CARLOS' HAT TRICK

It is a rare occurrence in soccer for a player to score three goals. But this was done by Carlos Tobon in the game with Pfeiffer on October 26.

Carlos is shown in the top picture as he makes his third goal. He is immediately congratulated by teammates (second picture) and then flashes a happy victory salute (third picture).

BEARS TAKE SAC-8 CROWN IN '88

John Perry, in his fifth year at LR, was named SAC-8 coach of the year in 1988.

Above: Tommy Laurendine, a junior from Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and LR's outstanding quarterback, was named to the First Team All-SAC-8 Team. Left: Rex Harrison, a senior from Graham, North Carolina, and a tight end who played with luster all season, was named to the SAC-8 First Team.

Above: Senior Todd Bennett (#60) pulls on the sweep around left end during the game with Guilford. Below: LR's leading scorer, senior James Crawford (#24) heads for the end zone again . . . and again. Bennett was from Rutherfordton, N.C., and Crawford hailed from Charlotte, N.C. Opposite page: Randolph Bowers, a junior from Chapin, S.C., and a consistent player all season, is on his way.

"The Spirit Within" — LR GREEKS

There is a spirit among the Greeks of Lenoir-Rhyne. The four fraternities and three sororities take part in numerous projects of charity and good will. Today's Greeks are involved in more than parties — they have a spirit within, working to make their community a better place for all. Below, Tau Kappa Epsilon's Dean Cline with Mrs. Nell Pugh, his adopted "grandmother," as Tekes visit a retirement home at Christmas.

Above: Three outstanding fraternity men and Greek Awards winners. # BEST ALL-AROUND SENIORS

The oldest surviving superlative of the HACAWA is "Beat All-Around Senior." The Senior Class chooses one male and one female, whose talent and involvement clearly mark them as "best all-around."

Tracy Wilson is an education major from Spartanburg, South Carolina. Head of the Fall cheerleading squad, Tracy was a member of Delta Zeta sorority and served as president of the organization during her senior year. An enthusiastic supporter of the college, Tracy was elected to WHO'S WHO.

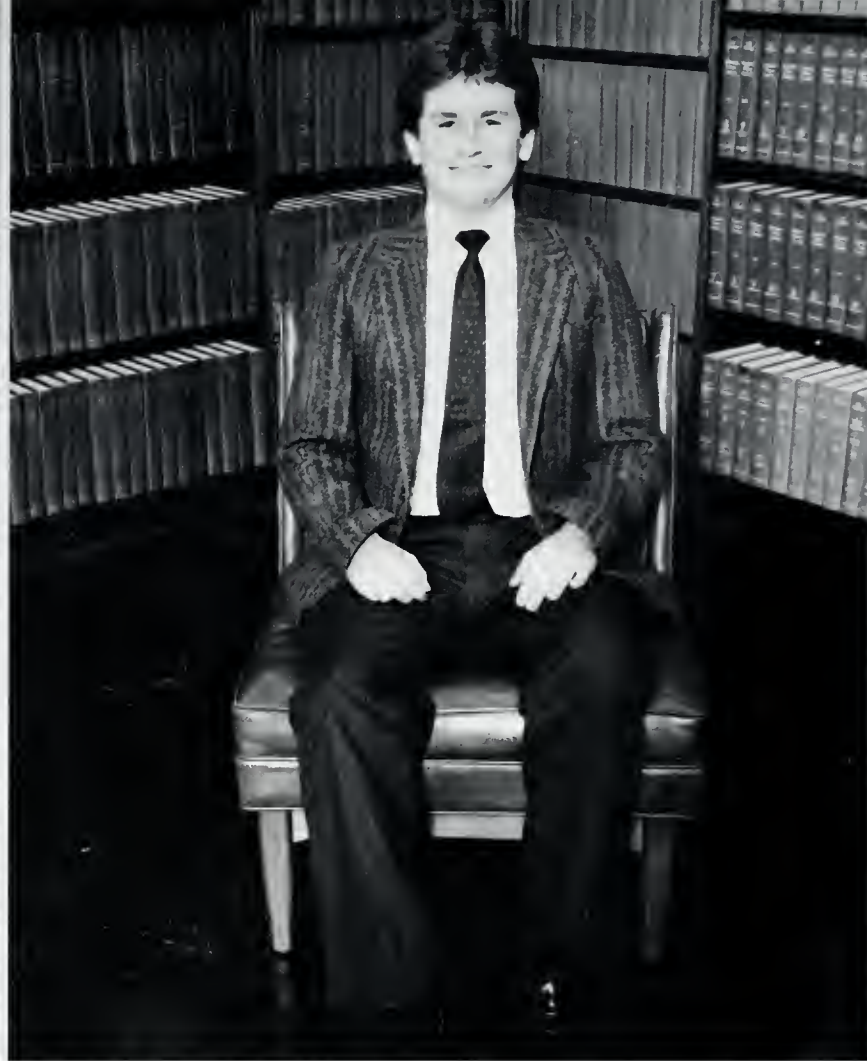

Kevin Ridenhour is a biology major from Concord, North Carolina. A member of Theta XI Fraternity, he served as president of the group during his junior year. In 1988 he received the Jenkins Presidential Cup for his outstanding tenure as a Greek president. A sound student and outstanding school citizen, Kevin was elected to WHO'S WHO.

IN MEMORIAM

Memories last forever
And I love the memories of you
Caring, sharing, spending your time
To bring a smile to all you knew.
Now you're gone from my life
Along with the kindness in your eyes
Our laughs, our smiles, our memories
Are always on my mind.

FROM THE EDITOR

To produce a college yearbook requires the talents and time of a large number of people. The 1989 HACAWA had a very small staff. Twice we ask from the pages of the college newspaper for assistance with the yearbook, but on neither appeal did we get a response.

Therefore the HACAWA reflects a lot of work by a few people. But we are indeed grateful for those who did offer their time.

Since a yearbook is chiefly pictorial, we first want to acknowledge and thank our photographers. Don Kelly was director of photography and Dr. Dan Overcash, Scott Carr, Carles Fite, Erika Welch and Dawn James were assistants.

The lion's share of our photography was done by two professional photographers — James Labrenz and David Ponti, both of Insight Photographic of Hickory. They worked long hours and with great patience and we are grateful to them. The 1989 HACAWA "looks good" and we must thank David and James for this.

Likewise, we owe a debt of gratitude to two professional photographers at the HICKORY DAILY RECORD — Terry Pharro and Jon Hurd. Their excellent shots are throughout our book and we thank them and the local newspaper for allowing us to share these pictures.

At Lenoir-Rhyne, we appreciate the assistance of Dr. Ray Hackett, Joe Smith, Iris Moore, Dottie Crafton, and Nikki Thomas (who helped in so many ways).

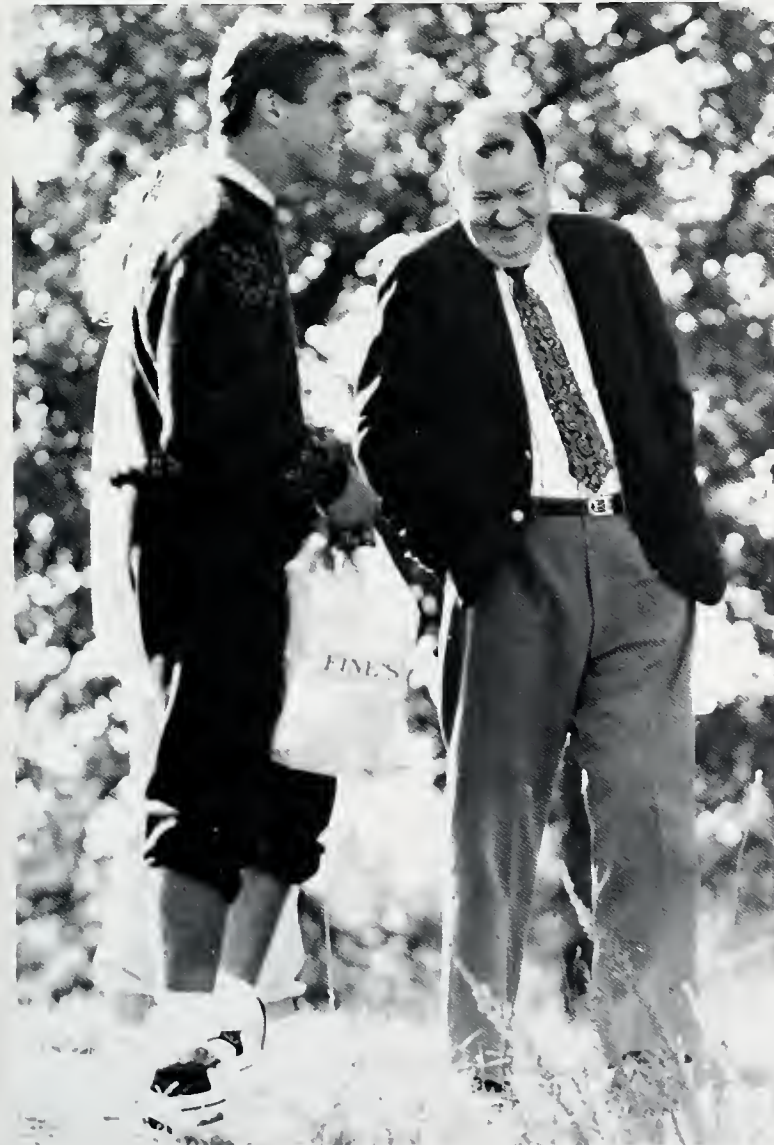

Also we appreciate the talent of Peter Thuesen, a senior at St. Stephens High School, who did the calligraphy for our divider sections.

We appreciate the help of our Delmar Company representative, Greg Whalen and the assistance given us on the class photos by Scholastic Services of Concord, N.C.

The 1988-89 year has been full of many emotions. I hope that this yearbook reflects the feelings that each senior has experienced. For me this year has been an opportunity and a pleasure because I have learned from a very special person — Dr. Ellis Boatmon.

Dr. Boatmon has helped me, not only with putting together a year of memories but also to gather a year of experience, responsibility, and special moments. I will never forget this opportunity for it has helped me mature. Dr. Boatmon is a wonderful yearbook advisor because he is a wonderful person. I would like to thank him for he has made my year into one I shall never forget.

Dawna Cooke,
Editor-in-Chief

DEDICATION

... for his love of Lenoir-Rhyne and his desire to serve,
... for his interest in students and their concerns,
... for his love of all people, whatever their strengths or limitations,
... for his compassion, his time-to-listen, his sense of humor,
... for his excitement about life and its opportunities.

The Senior Class of 1989 dedicates the HACAWA with love and remembrance to

JERRY JEROME SHAW

Jerry Shaw died on November 29, 1988, at the Vanderbilt Medical Center in Nashville, Tennessee. He was buried on December 3 in Gastonia, North Carolina.

CONCLUSION

For four years this has been home. We were caught-up in a routine that gradually became familiar to us.

We learned new ways of doing things. We met new people. Acquired new attitudes.

Slowly, a special meaning came to this place.

The seasons came and went. There were disappointments. But there were also good times. Just the joy of being together.

But larger dreams and larger purposes were being formed.

We have had our time, our season,
our purpose.

Our present now slowly fades into yesterday.

But we will never forget this place. We will never forget that very special moment in our lives when we were Bears. Perhaps we shall always be LR Bears.
